Considering cost of uniforms, shoes, caps (as per requirement), washing charges and supervision cost while quoting the Service Charges. GST should be paid separately. For an example, if one bidder quoted his rate Excess(+) 2.54%, then his Service charges will be 2.54% on the monthly minimum rate of wages and if one bidder quoted his rate Less(-) 2.54%, then his Service charges will be NIL and if one bidder quoted his rate 0 % (i.e at par) his Service charges will also be NIL. So negative and zero service charges mean bidder will not claim any service charges from KMDA. So in the above case, both the bidders (who have quoted negative or zero) will be treated as L1 bidders. If these types of situation arise, both (who have quoted negative or zero) are considered as L1 Bidders and next course of action will be followed as per Government rules.
