3.0 Earnest Money Deposit:

In addition to the complete set of tender documents as mentioned here in before, the tenderer shall have to deposit an amount as earnest money (as mentioned earlier) online. Please note that submission of tender without earnest money will be treated as non-responsive.

The earnest money deposited otherwise will not be accepted and the tender will not be valid.

No exemption of EMD will be allowed.

4.0. Security Deposit (as per clause 1.2 of General Conditions of Contract) West Bengal Form No.2911):

While making any payment to the person(s) whose tender has been accepted (hereinafter shall be called the contractor) for work done under the contract, the authority making payment shall deduct such sum which together with the Earnest Money already deposited and converted into security deposit, shall amount to @10% of the value of works executed at the material point of time and paid during the progressive running accounts bills, so that total deduction together with Earnest Money constitute @10% of the tendered value of work actually done.

In case of excess/and supplementary work over the tendered amount, additional security @10% of such additional amount is to be deposited for all such excess/and supplementary works beyond the tendered amount before payment of final bill.

Compensation of all other sums of money payable by the contractor to the Government under the terms of the contract may be deducted from security deposit.

However, even though the earnest money deposited exceeds the prescribed percentage, due to reduction of tendered amount due to any reason whatsoever, such additional earnest money shall be deemed to have been converted into security and further deductions from progressive bills shall be made, taking into consideration the enhanced component of earnest money so converted into security.

Security deduction will not normally be required for hiring of inspection vehicles and boats etc., supply of tools & plants, furniture and computer peripherals. Separate agreement may be required in those cases, particularly for consultancy and RFP for EPC, which shall be made in standard formats to be approved by the Government.

After completion of the work, the Contractor may opt for refund of the security deposit by replacing equal amount of bank guarantee of scheduled bank valid up to 3 months beyond the defect liability period. And such refund of the security deposit by replacing equal amount of bank guarantee will be applicable only for capital works (and not for O&M WORKS), but such bank guarantee of scheduled bank must be valid up to 3 months beyond the defect liability period AS MENTIONED IN CLAUSE 6.0 HEREUNDER.

However, release of security deposit shall be done as per Defect Liability Clause mentioned here under as clause 6.0.

5.0 Additional Performance Security as per Meorandum No.4608-F(Y), dt.18/07/218 of the Finance Department (Audit Branch), GoWB:

Additional Performance Security @10% of the tendered amount shall be obtained from the successful bidder if the accepted bid value is @80% or less of the estimate put to tender.

The Additional Performance Security shall be submitted in the form of Bank Guarantee from any scheduled bank before issuance of the Work Order. If the bidder fails to submit the Additional Performance Security within 7(seven) working days from the date of issuance of Letter of Acceptance, his Earnest Money will be forfeited and other necessary actions as per NIT like black listing of the contractor, etc. may be taken. The Bank Guarantee shall have to be valid up to end of the Contract Period and shall be renewed accordingly, if required.

The Bank Guarantee shall be returned immediately on successful completion of the Contract. If the bidder fails to complete the work successfully, the Additional Performance Security shall be forfeited at any time during the pendency of the contract period after serving proper notice to the contractor. Necessary provisions regarding deduction of security deposit from the progressive bills of the contractor as per relevant clauses of the contract shall in no way be altered/affected by provision of this Additional Performance Security.

This amount will be released in accordance with the usual practice prevailing in KMDA from time to time.

While issuing bank guarantees in favour of KMDA, the issuing applicants must mention receiver's details as ICICI bank, IFSC: ICIC0006950, Branch Salt Lake, Sec-I, in BG text at which SFMS IFIN 760 message to be sent by the issuing bank to establish the authenticity of the given BG”
